

Warning: Grit Theft in Burtonwood Area

Background

Warrington and Halton Trading Standards would like to make iCAN members aware that a high number of grit bins in the Burtonwood area of Warrington have been illegally emptied.

On inspection bins in Perrins Road and Back Lane were found to be empty and a member of the public has reported seeing two men loading sacks into a silver van.

Advice

Advice from Trading Standards is that householders should not agree to have any work done by traders that cold call.

If you are approached by a cold caller offering to grit paths and driveways please let us know by ringing Contact Warrington on 01925 443322. Residents in the Halton area should ring Halton Direct Link on 0303 333 4300.

Please look out for any vulnerable friends, relatives and neighbours and pass this information on.
